EXPLANATION OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE CHILD ABUSE/NEGLECT REPORTING LAW

(Code Of Alabama 1975, Sections 26-14-1 through 26-14-13)

In order to protect children whose health and welfare may be adversely affected through abuse and neglect, this law provides for the reporting of such cases to appropriate authorities. The law also contains immunity provisions so that any person making a report pursuant to the statute is immune from any civil or criminal liability that might otherwise be incurred or imposed.

The following institutions and persons are required by law to report known or suspected child abuse or neglect under a penalty of a misdemeanor, fine or sentence: hospitals, clinics, sanitariums, doctors, physicians, surgeons, medical examiners, coroners, dentists, osteopaths, optometrists, chiropractors, podiatrists, nurses, school teachers and officials, peace officers, law enforcement officials, pharmacists, social workers, day care workers or employees, mental health professionals, physical therapists, public and private K-12 employees, employees of public and private institutions or any other person called upon to render aid or medical assistance to a child when that child is known or suspected to be abused or neglected. When a child is known or suspected to be a victim of child abuse or neglect, the mandatory reporter himself is required to report orally by telephone or direct communication immediately, followed by a written report to a duly constituted authority. In addition, any other person may make a report if that person has reasonable cause to suspect that a child is being abused or neglected.
